Ballparks of America Announcement and Meeting Invitation

Ballparks of America has partnered with HBC Event Services as their official Housing company. We invite you to learn more from Ballparks of America's CFO, Craig Hutson, Ballparks of America's General Manager, Bobby Sutcliffe, HBC Event Service's Vice President, Nicholas Collins and HBC Event Services' Event Manager, Jessie Vazquez, on Tuesday, November 14th at 9:00am in the Building 13-6 Fire Department training room - enter from Gretna Road and stay to the right. Building 13 is located across from Brooklyn field (see image below).

Founded in 1991, HBC Event Services is a nationally recognized leader in sports travel management, providing housing services to many of the nation's top sporting organizations. HBC Event Services is committed to bringing high touch customer service combined with state of the art technology to provide hands down the best possible housing experience available in today's market. Our staff consists of both hotel industry veterans and/or those that have been closely involved with competitive sports.

One-on-one appointments are also available between Tuesday, November 14th and Wednesday, November 15th. Please click on the "Doodle" pole link below and select all times you are available. Jessie or Nic will contact you to confirm a time. <https://doodle.com/poll/wxkdm5remz9uubmn>

Additionally, HBC will be sending out electronic RFPs next week for Ballparks of America's 2018 schedule. Please respond directly through their system to the leads so they can begin to contract with you. HBC will be helping to capture conclusive reporting for all hotel economic impact associated with the events at Ballparks of America and we're excited to be working with them.
